

Climate and Environmental Change: Challenges for Migration Research

Research Colloquium SS 2010 Transnationalisation and Development Research Centre

Convenors: Thomas Faist, Jeanette Schade
Centre on Migration, Citizenship and Development (COMCAD)
Wednesday, 16 – 18 h, U5-211

Date	Presenters and Titles
14.04.10	Kerstin Schmidt-Verkerk University of Sussex, Department of Geography Climate Change and Migratory Behaviour in Rural Communities in Mexico
28.04.10	Prof. Dr. Christoph Görg Helmholtz-Centre for Environmental Research, Leipzig The Role of Science in Ecosystem Assessments: The Challenge of the Millennium Ecosystem Assessment and Recent Discussions.
12.05.10	Dr. François Gemenne Institute du Développement Durable et des Relations Internationales, Paris Policy Responses and Conceptualization of Environmental Migration: an Advocacy Coalition Framework Analysis
26.05.10	Margit Ammer, M.A. Ludwig Boltzmann Institut für Menschenrechte, Universität Wien Climate Change and Human Rights: The Status of Climate Refugees/Migrants in Europe
09.06.10	Dr. des. Christopher Smith Department of Geography at the University of Sussex Agent-Based Modelling of Climate Change Migration in Burkina Faso
23.06.10	Dr. Fabrice Renaud Institute for Environment and Human Security / United Nations University, Bonn Environmentally Induced Migration as a Challenge to Humanitarian Organisations
07.07.10	Dr. Eva Gerharz, Universität Bielefeld, Lehrforschung Südasien, Politics of Identity and Belonging