Contents

Introduction
Stateography: Relational Modes, Boundary Work, and Embeddedness
   Tatjana Thelen, Larissa Vettres, and Keebet von Benda-Beckmann 1

Chapter 1
Contingent Statehood: Clientelism and Civic Engagement as Relational Modalities in Contemporary Bosnia and Herzegovina
   Larissa Vettres 20

Chapter 2
The State, Legal Rigor, and the Poor: The Daily Practice of Welfare Control
   Vincent Dubois 38

Chapter 3
Relationships, Practices, and Images of the Local State in Rural Russia
   Rebecca Kay 56

Chapter 4
Acts of Assistance: Navigating the Interstices of the British State with the Help of Non-profit Legal Advisers
   Alice Forbess and Deborah James 73

Chapter 5
Images of Care, Boundaries of the State: Volunteering and Civil Society in Czech Health Care
   Rosie Read 90
Chapter 6
State Kinning and Kinning the State in Serbian Elder Care Programs 107
Tatjana Thelen, Andre Thiemann, and Duška Roth

Chapter 7
Workings of the State: Administrative Lists, European Union Food Aid, and the Local Practices of Distribution in Rural Romania 124
Ștefan Dorondel and Mihai Popa

Chapter 8
Creating the State Locally through Welfare Provision: Two Mayors, Two Welfare Regimes in Rural Hungary 141
Gyöngyi Schwarcz and Alexandra Szőke

Index 159