

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: JUNIOR FELLOWSHIPS AT ZIF

for the Research Group “The Epistemology of Evidence-Based Policy”

The Center for Interdisciplinary Research (ZiF) is Bielefeld University’s Institute for Advanced Study. It offers opportunities—with respect to time, space, and funding—for outstanding interdisciplinary research.

The research group “The Epistemology Of Evidence-Based Policy: How Philosophy Can Facilitate The Science-Policy Interface” will work and meet at ZiF from February to June 2023 to develop an applied philosophical framework to facilitate and inform interactions at the science-policy interface.

ZiF is recruiting two Junior Fellows (academic support only) to join the research group and take part in their activities.

WHAT WE OFFER

- a perfect opportunity to experience international and interdisciplinary research and to expand research networks
- exchange with renowned scholars from Philosophy and Biology, as well as policy makers and experts from the fields of science, politics, regulation and legislation
- in addition to participating in the research group’s meetings, Junior Fellows can bring in their own research

WHO CAN APPLY

- doctoral students, postdocs (up to 2 years after the completion of the doctorate) and advanced Master students of Bielefeld University
- their research interests should strongly align with the research group’s work

HOW TO APPLY

- the brief applications must include a CV and a max. two-page letter of motivation (in one PDF, via email) and be sent to the ZiF’s Executive Director Prof. Dr. Véronique Zanetti: zif-applications@uni-bielefeld.de
- deadline: 23 September 2022

Please contact us with any questions;
we are happy to help!
