

Public Lecture 7th Annual seminar (BGHS)

Within the frame of the 7th Annual Seminar of Bielefeld Graduate School in History and Sociology (BGHS)

We cordially invite you to a public lecture held by

Prof. Dr. Hans Mathias Kepplinger
(Mainz University)

On topic:

„Ereignisse als Gegenstand öffentlicher Kommunikation“

[“Events as Objects of Public Communication”; Simultaneous translation in English provided]

On Tuesday 30 June 2015 at 6:00 p.m in the plenary hall of the Centre for Interdisciplinary Research (ZiF)

Prof. Dr. Hans Mathias Kepplinger

Is a professor for Empirical Communication Research at the University of Mainz. Since the 1970s he mainly contributed to the scientific study of the connection between the mass media coverage, political communication and public decisions .His research , among others topics, delves into the oil crisis of 1973, the repercussions of the Fukushima nuclear disaster of 2011 and the media construction of political scandals (such as Kohl, Sarrazin and Wulff) .

The BGHS and the 7th Annual seminar.

The Bielefeld Graduate School in History and Sociology (BGHS) is a device for structured doctoral training in history and sociology at the Bielefeld University. The BGHS is international, thematically open to a vast range of subjects and involved in interdisciplinary exchange. It is one of two projects at the Bielefeld University which are promoted as part of the Excellence Initiative of the federal and state governments since 2007.

The Annual Seminar is the annual conference of the BGHS . This year's Annual Seminar will take place from June 29 to first of July, 2015 and is entitled " Structures and Events - A Dialogue between History and Sociology ". The conference will bring together young academics from 13 countries.

For more information about the program and the 7th BGHS Annual seminar: www.uni-bielefeld.de/bghs/