

Bundesministerium
für Bildung
und Forschung

Boundary Processes in World Society

University of Bielefeld, June 11-12 2018

Host:

Kirsten Kramer

Venue:

Zentrum für interdisziplinäre Forschung (ZiF)

Methoden 1

33615 Bielefeld

Monday, June 11

- 14-14.30h Welcome/Introduction
- Kirsten Kramer (Bielefeld): Boundary Processes in World Society
- PANEL I
- 14:30-15:30h William O'Reilly (Cambridge): Boundaries and Frontiers (title tbc)
- 15:30-16:30h Jörg Dünne (Berlin): The Pampa and the Barbed Wire
- 16:30-17:00h Coffee Break
- 17:00-18:00h Fernando Williams (La Plata/Buenos Aires): Unbounded Waters: A Historical Approach to the Use and Representation of Rivers in Metropolitan Buenos Aires
- 19:00 h Dinner
-

Tuesday, June 12

- 10:00-11:00h Franz Mauelshagen (Potsdam): Clio meets Gaia — or: No Liberation from Nature
- PANEL II
- 11:00-12:00h Willy Raussert (Bielefeld): Rethinking Boundaries: Art Practice and Public Space in a Globalizing World from 'Zapatista' to 'Occupy'
- 12.30-14.00h Lunch
- PANEL III
- 14.00-15.00h Antje Flüchter (Bielefeld): Crossing and Shaping Boundaries in the Context of Early Modern Cultural Encounters

15.00-16:00h	Leon Enrique Avila Romero (Chiapas): Agricultural Frontiers in Chiapas: Between Dispossession and Resistance
16:30-16:45h	Coffee Break
16:45-17:45h	Olaf Kaltmeier (Bielefeld): Contemporary Refeudalization and the Return of Boundaries: On Citadels, Fortresses and Walls
17:45-18:15h	Concluding Discussion
18:15-19:45h	IAS-Colloquium (Room: X E0-228) Afua Cooper (Dalhousie University, Halifax): The Story of Slavery as Paradox: Ontario's Underground Railroad Historic Museums as Public and Government sites of Slavery's Commemoration. [Optional]
20:00h	Dinner