

April	upon consultation		Support in the search for practice partners and in Conception of practical projects by the programme management
May	upon consultation		Support in the search for practice partners and in Conception of practical projects by the programme management
May	31 May		Application deadline for grants awarded for practical projects between September and December
In the period September to November	Over the course of three months		Practical Project upon consultation		On-site visit of the programme manager to the practice partner at halfway point of the practice project: career interview (1) between the scholarship holder and the programme manager and between the scholarship holder and the practice partner (one hour each) upon consultation		Career interview (2) between the scholarship holder and his/her supervisor in the dissertation after the end of the practical project (1 hour)
	upon consultation		Submit a contribution to the BGHS-Blog about professional experiences in a practical project
November	30 November		Submission of the final report on the practical project (including the certificate of employment by the practice partner)