

Universität Bielefeld

Academics in China

Content

1. Concept of „Academics in...“
2. China: Facts and Figures
3. Project Academics in China

Concept of „Academics in ...“

The project aims to...

- promote the potential of scholars of the concerned region
- give researchers and interested university members the opportunity to get some information on the higher education systems of the concerned region
- develop a network between academics
- facilitate cooperation

China: Facts and Figures

Education (as of 2016)

- Students in China: over 34 million
- Students abroad: 712.157
- 3 most popular destinations for students:
 - 1. USA
 - 2. Australia
 - 3. Japan
 - (9th Germany)
- Chinese students in Germany: 34.643

Academics in China

- Establishment of a network of Chinese researchers
- Understanding of the project as a dialogue process → intercultural communication
- Thorough insight into the interests and the expertise of the Chinese group of young researchers at Bielefeld University

Academics in China

- 3 Workshops to find out and work on centres of interest
 - Guidelines for studying and searching in china
 - Career opportunities in China (also for returnees)
 - exchange programs and projects
 - recruiting international researchers
 - international marketing (including increasing visibility and the reputation of Bielefeld University)

Academics in China

- Powerpoint of the Bielefeld university in Chinese / Taiwanese (is running)
- Network of Chinese Researchers at Bielefeld University