

Advertisement for a Student Assistant Position (WHF) as Research Student at the Institute for World Society Studies (IW)

A research assistant position BA/FH (WHF) with 9 hours/week for 12 months is to be filled as soon as possible.

Planned activities:

- Literature and source research in a self-selected area of globalisation and world society research (which can also be used to develop your own research project, e.g. a Master's thesis)
- Literature acquisition and archiving for the preparation of scientific papers and publications
- Regular and active participation in the core events of the IW

In addition to the position as a research assistant, the Institute for World Society offers the research student integration into the institute as well as a workplace in the institute's office.

Job Requirements:

- Good German and English language skills
- The ability and willingness to work independently and in a structured manner
- Interest in and knowledge of World Society Studies

Applicants cannot be hired if they

- are writing their Master's thesis or state examination,
- are already employed as research assistants or
- have concluded a work contract (Werkvertrag) for the above-mentioned period.

Please send your application with a motivation letter, CV, a brief outline of your study programme and a 4-page exposé of your research project in one PDF file by no later than 15.02.2024 to the following address: iw@uni-bielefeld.de

In case of questions please do not hesitate to contact Catharina Wessing (via email to the address given).
