

Knowledge Production and Circulation: Workshop schedule

Joanna Pfaff-Czarnecka

In-Person Workshop ZiF Bielefeld / 28-29 September 2023

Thursday, 28th September 2023

Joanna Pfaff-Czarnecka (Bielefeld University): Introduction (9:00-9:10 a.m.)

Panel 1: Micro-configurations of knowledge exchange

9:15 – 10:35

- Éva Rozalia Hölzle (Bielefeld University): “Housekeeping: Everyday Mastery of Running a Home”
- Katsuo Nawa (University of Tokyo): “On Multilayeredness of Knowledge and Practice in the Rituals of the Byans, Nepal”

Break (10:35 – 11:00 a.m.)

11:00 – 12:20

- Vineeta Sinha (National University of Singapore): “Multiple and Intersecting Fields of Knowledge Production: Building Bridges, Circulating Concepts and Theories”
- Arnika Fuhrmann (Cornell University): “Shaping Asia in Chinese Bangkok: Contemporary Re-Visions of Region”

Lunch (12:20 – 14:00)

Panel 2: Translocal, trans- and international dimensions in knowledge exchange

14:00 – 16:00

- Will Tuladhar-Douglas: “Interactions between layered networks of medical knowledge in Kathmandu”
- Hsu Yu-Yin (Ruhr University Bochum): “The Visualization of Transnational Knowledge Exchange in Exhibitions: A case study of the 1911 International Hygiene Exhibition in Germany”
- Andreas Vasilache (Bielefeld University): “Sovereignty, discipline, governmentality, and pastorate: The ménage-à-quatre of contemporary authoritarian and right-wing populist power”

Break (16:00 – 16:30)

16:30 – 18:30

- Claudia Derichs; Faiza Muhammad Din; Manja Stephan-Emmrich (Humboldt University): "Crossroads of Tradition and Innovation: Exploring the Professional Pathways of Muslim Women in Asia"
- Radha Malkar (University of Heidelberg): “The Deutsche-Indien Expedition: A co-production of a collection?”
- Christoph Antweiler (University of Bonn): “Learning from co-productive failure. Experiences from a trans-cultural capacity-building project in Southeast Asia”

Conference dinner: 8:00 p.m.

Friday, 29th September 2023

Panel 3: Knowledge on Asia: Reflection on ‘our’ knowledge circuits

9:00 – 10:20 a.m.

- Petra Dannecker (University of Vienna): “The influence of the social field of science on knowledge production and knowledge circuits“
- Thomas Reuter (University of Melbourne): “Knowledge Circuits in Asia: Exchanges Within and Beyond Academia”

Break (10:20 – 10:50)

10:50 – 12:10 a.m.

- Riho Isaka (University of Tokyo): “Location, Language, and Networks: South Asian Studies in Japan and Dialogues among South Asianists in Asia”
- Antje Missbach (Bielefeld University), Jemma Purdey (Monash University): Pocketing the prize: Lingered patterns of prestige in Southeast Asia Studies

Panel 4: German Scholarship on Asian Societies – taking stock on cooperation and networking desiderates

1:00 – 4:00 p.m.

Panel discussion with:

Verena Blechinger-Talcott (Free University Berlin)

Corinne Flacke (German Research Foundation)

Anika Haverling (ZiF – Centre for interdisciplinary Research)

Anna Katharina Hornidge (German Institute of Development and Sustainability)

Michael Sondermann (BMBF - Federal Ministry of Education and Research)

4:30 – 6:00 p.m. Concluding session