Together with Wesleyan University, the Bielefeld University's Collaborative Research Centre (SFB) 1288 "Practices of Comparing" invites applications for fellowships at its six-day summer school on historical theory.

After starting with a general reflection on the "Theory of History", the following days will concentrate on the other four approaches mentioned above in greater detail.

The theory of historical change and the practices of comparing will serve as common scope for the discussions of how to use the presented theories in actual historical practice.

Angelika Epple, Bielefeld | Practice Theory

Ethan Kleinberg, Wesleyan | Theory of History

Achim Landwehr, Düsseldorf | Discourse Analysis
