

Colloquium Series 2020/2021

Understanding Asia

Negotiating the social in collective constellations

- |                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|-------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 24. Nov. 202017:00–19:00 c.t.Zoom event | Historical Memory among the Tai Vat (Laos):Narrating and Performing the Past in thePresentProf. Dr. Pierre Petit (Université libre de Bruxelles)                                         |
| 08. Dec. 202017:00–19:00 c.t.Zoom event | What does it cost and who pays the price ofBangladesh becoming a lower middle-incomecountry? Thinking South Asia through itsexceptionProf. Dr. Shelley Feldman (Cornell University) |
| 12. Jan. 202116:00–18:00 c.t.H3         | Inclusive Governance, Care Narratives and theMaking of Networked Regimes of Control, inIndia and BeyondProf. Dr. Ursula Rao (Max Planck Institute forSocial Anthropology)            |
| 09. Feb. 202116:00–18:00 c.t.H3         | Whales, Rituals, and Ecological Loss: Asian"Folk Religion" in the AnthropoceneProf. Dr. Aike P. Rots (University of Oslo)                                                                     |

---

Please note! In order to participate you need to register for all of these lectures at least 2 weeks in advance.

Please send your registration request to:

sekretariat.nguyen@uni-bielefeld.de /or/ sekretariat.pfaff@uni-bielefeld.de