

Exemplary doctoral course

1. year Orientation phase

- Interdisciplinary workshop with guests. Designed by PIs and Postdocs (in the research pillar on the thematic focus). 1 shw*, 2 days.
- Retreat with guests. Designed by Postdocs, PIs (entire GC). Methodological focus. 1 shw, 2 days.
- Interdisciplinary research workshop. Guests from Germany can be invited to individual sessions. In total 2 shw over 4 semester.
- Interdisciplinary collegial working groups, 1 x per month over six semester.

Practice module

- Consisting of two block courses from the offerings of the University Bielefeld over 2 shw in the first and second year.

2. year Research phase

- Interdisciplinary workshop with guests. Designed by the PhD students (in the research pillar on the thematic focus). 1 shw, 2 days.
- Retreat with guests. Designed by Postdocs, PIs (entire GC). Theoretical focus. 1 shw, 2 days.
- Interdisciplinary research workshop. Guests from Germany can be invited to individual sessions. In total 2 shw over 4 semester.
- Interdisciplinary collegial working groups, 1 x per month over six semester.

3. year Final phase

- International conference with guests, 2 days.
- Interdisciplinary collegial working groups, 1 x per month over six semester.

Colloquium

- Disciplinary colloquium in the own faculty or equivalent. In total 4 shw.

Study or research stay abroad

- Usually one semester/term (optional).

Legende:

- The specified courses must be taken this year.
- The specified courses should, if possible, be taken within the first or second year.
- The specified courses can be taken within the third year.

*shw = semester hour per week